Whitewater Roundtable

E3 ECONOMICS EDUCATION EXPECTATIONS

Discussion notes:

The Whitewater Roundtable discussion workshop is geared to help you share ideas with the other business leaders at your table and ultimately with the group today, if you choose.

You will be given a brief instruction just before lunch and then discuss the topics while you enjoy lunch. If you choose, your table will have the opportunity to pick one of the best ideas and share it with the all of the attendees!

Use this notepaper to facilitate your conversation and please take legible notes so that we can compile your great ideas and share them in the event materials online.

Topic: Share an innovative solution, tool, or idea that is working for your business right now… in any area… marketing, finance, customer service, labor, sustainability, etc.
