

Patient Confidentiality Agreement

As an employee of SurgiStaff, division of HiTech Searches, Inc., you have both a legal and ethical responsibility to protect the privacy of employees, client nurses and hospitals and all proprietary information of SurgiStaff (SS). All information that you see or hear regarding nurses, staff, patients, directly or indirectly, is completely confidential and must not be discussed or released in any form, except when required in the performance of your duties. If you have access to employee information, you are expected to treat such information in the same confidential manner.

Unauthorized disclosure of medical information is also criminally punishable as a misdemeanor. The mere public acknowledgement of HIV disease, psychiatric disorders, drug abuse or alcohol abuse may expose the company to both substantial fines and liability to the person.

Any information provided to you by the nurses or hospitals is considered confidential and should not be shared with others except when required in the performance of your duties.

I have read the above information and understand that any violation of this agreement is cause for immediate termination.
